(Vigilant Reader Book Reviews) - The plot of TONY TUCCI is compelling, involved and covers a lot of ground. The writing style is complex and intense. Tony Tucci s world is about to explode . For over thirty years, he s been a trusted friend and associate of Mario Conti, a powerful Mafia don. After saving Mario s life during a bloody assassination attempt, Tony helped build the family s construction business until Dante, the Don s dangerous rogue son, took over and put him out to pasture. While his status within the family is solid and his legend endures, Tony spends his time as the family driver, a day trader, and as a trusted ally to people in need. But now, Dante is involved in a sinister arms deal that could not only harm the family, but also cause the death of thousands of innocents. As the clock counts down, an explosive jihadi plot emerges. With Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent Jake Crowley closing in on an ego-driven Islamic terrorist plotting a massive strike against America, Tony must re-examine his life and loyalties, and decide what s more important-his close bond with the Conti Family or the oath he swore years ago as a United States Marine. Set against the backdrop of New York City and the Long Island Gold Coast, this compelling story intertwines Mafia culture, today s terrorist landscape, the security state, and gripping questions about loyalty, integrity and the public good. One man can make a difference. TONY TUCCI will take you on a ride you ll never forget.
