Me from my delights to sever, Me to torture, me to task Fleecy locks and black complexion Cannot forfeit natures claim; Skins may differ, but affection Dwells in white and black the same. Why did all-creating Nature Make the plant for which we toil Sighs must fan it, tears must water, Sweat of ours must dress the soil. Think, ye masters iron-hearted. Lolling at your jovial boards; Think how many backs have smarted For the sweets your cane affords. Is there, as you sometimes tell us, Is there one who reigns on high Has he hid you buy and sell us, Speaking from his throne, the sky Ask him, if your knotted scourges, Matches, blood-extorting screws, Are the means that duty urges, Agents of his will to use Hark! he answers--wild tornadoes, Strewing yonder sea with wrecks, Wasting towns, plantations, meadows, Are the voice with...

Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.
