

Appointment in Zambia: A Trans-African Adventure (Paperback)

By Sara Dunn

Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. `We could always go overland now that we have wheels, Ross had suggested out of the blue. I d pulled out an atlas and we d traced a route down through Africa via countries still marked with their colonial names. Only two strips of water interrupted the flow of land between Edinburgh and Chingola; the English Channel and the Straits of Gibraltar. Fourteen months had passed since Neil Armstrong walked on the moon so Africa couldn t be that difficult, could it? A month later we boarded the ferry for Calais. In 1970 newly-weds Ross and Sara set off, with extraordinary naivety and a lack of proper preparation, to drive from Edinburgh to Zambia in a standard saloon car. Appointment in Zambia is the story of their epic car journey. Sara was 21 (and could not drive) and Ross was 23 when they and their brand new Hillman Hunter (in `Golden Sand , a colour chosen before they d opted to drive through the Sahara.) started out. For eight weeks, in a trip of over 20 000 kms, they slept in the car, coped with illness...
