Excerpt: .satire. 6th, Perversa interpretation of the words and conduct Of others. 18. What is defamation? The utterance of falsehood respecting our neighbour which tends to injure or destroy his good name, character, or occupation. It is a crime if it springs from malice, and is called a libel if written and published. 19. What is detraction? The act of taking something from the reputation or worth of another with a view to lessen him in the estimation of his neighbours. Detraction may consist in representing merit as less than it really is; or in the imputation of faults, vices, or crimes which impair reputation. And if such imputation is false it is defamation. 20. What is backbiting P The act of injuring another when absent; secret slander. 21. In what words do Moses and S. Paul condemn tattling and talebearing? Lev. xix. 10; 1 Tim. v. 13. 22. What do you understand by malicious and idle satire P Severe exposure of the actions of others in a wrong light, and holding them up to ridicule or contempt. 23. What do you mean by perverse interpretation ? Attributing a motive for and a meaning to words and actions which they have not. All these, however they may be called, are among the violations of this commandment. They are an abuse of our own gift of speech; abuse of the confidence of those wo address; and generally one way or another are injurious to our...
