A Cappella Books, United States, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In early 1861, as he prepared to leave his home in Springfield, Illinois, to move into the White House, Abraham Lincoln faced many momentous tasks, but none he dreaded more than telling his two youngest sons, Willie and Tad, that the family s beloved pet dog, Fido, would not be accompanying them to Washington. Lincoln was afraid the skittish dog couldn t endure the long rail journey, so he decided to leave the mutt behind with friends in Springfield. Fido had been by Lincoln s side as the prairie lawyer rose from obscurity to the presidency, sometimes carrying bundles of letters from the post office in his mouth as he and his master walked the streets of the state capital. Abe Fido tells the story of two friends, an unlikely tandem who each became famous and died prematurely. The book also explores the everyday life of Springfield in the years leading up to the Civil War, as well as Lincoln s sometimes radical views on animal welfare and how they shaped his life and his presidency. It s the story of a master and his dog, living through historic, tumultuous times.
