Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Biography of the Bar of Orleans County, Vermont Biography is history teaching by example. It is the basis of all historical structures. The chronicles of the nations are composed of the sayings and doings of their men and women. These make up the sum of history. Since the year 1800 a county court has been held in Orleans county, and persons year after year have been admitted to practice as attorneys in this court, have been admitted to its bar. A record of such admissions in most instances has been kept by the county clerk; but this number is small compared with those admitted elsewhere who have resided and practiced law here. Of this large number there was no correct record, and in a very few years the scattered links of history could not have been gathered up sufficient to have written the chronicles of the bar of Orleans county. Even now, with the most careful and diligent research, a few are lacking. The aim of the author has been to give a more or...
