

Teaching Strategies to Motivate College Students

By Neil Mars

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The world is changing rapidly, as well as the way we think and live. Meanwhile, while changes occur in the way we read, communicate and interact, absolutely nothing evolved regarding the educational system. Students are showing much less interest and motivation to learn nowadays, and we tend to attribute such phenomenon to some kind of mental disorder or laziness, not realizing that both emotional and physical reactions reflect a new social tendency. Studies applied on children with Attention Deficit Disorder have shown that emotions, particularly associated with metacognitive abilities, have a very important role in helping them develop cognitive patterns and assimilate information, so why do we insist in medication? But more importantly, why doesn't the educational system change? This system has been created to promote a governmental ideal for our society, therefore, everything that is implied for our children and young adults to learn matches this paradigm. Those that resist fitting such model will not be praised as educational movies tend to show, but rather ridiculed, discriminated and rejected. This applies to both teachers and students,...

Reviews

It is one of the most popular publications. We have read through it and I am sure that I will likely study again once more later on. I am just delighted to tell you that this is actually the finest publication we have read through in my individual existence and might be the best PDF for actually.

-- Mr. Cloyd Schmidt II

This book is definitely worth getting. It usually will not price too much. It has been printed in an extremely simple way in fact it is only right after I finished reading this publication where basically altered me, modify the way I think.
