Reviews

It is one of my favorite books. Sure, it is actually engaging, nonetheless an interesting and amazing literature. I am happy to let you know that this is basically the finest book I have got to study inside my very own existence and might be the finest publication for ever.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the preface: THE following Translation of an interesting portion of Mirkhond s General History of the East was completed many years back, under peculiarly un-favourable circumstances-the possession of only one Manuscript, and the want of some learned friend to consult on the difficult and doubtful pas-sages which occur in the original. The under-taking, commenced under such discouraging pro-spects, has at present been revised under more favourable auspices: the Library of the East-India College supplied two valuable Manuscripts; and Dr. WILKINS, of the East-India House, to whom Oriental Literature is so deeply indebted, kindly af-forded the use of three Manuscripts from the Library of the Honourable the East-India Company. In addition to these advantages, the Translator enjoyed that of consulting the MIRZA IBRAHIM, a learned native of Shiraz, who to an intimate know-ledge of the customs and languages of Western Asia unites an extensive acquaintance with English and European literature. The Translator now re-grets that he did not more frequently avail himself of such powerful aid, so cheerfully afforded on every occasion. In this version nothing has been in-tentionally passed over, excepting the enumeration of difficulties and the various readings; even the seeming tautology of the text has been adhered to in numerous passages, where a concise Arabic sen-tence has been dilated into sonorous Persian periods. On the whole, the translation has been kept so close to the original, that it is hoped the Oriental Stu-dent may find it a useful and faithful auxiliary in the perusal of the Rauzat-us-Safa: and, as this motive has chiefly influenced the Translator, he trusts that, for whatever faults may be found in the style, this important object, which he never lost...
