Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 76 pages. You are buying a powerful book by the author, Valerie Abram, who is receiving huge reviews and recognition for her new book Free Baby. This book was written to help homosexuals or heterosexuals find personal, emotional, and physiological freedom from a life they can no longer stand to live. Regardless of your sexual preference, when you are done, you're done. You must create a successful plan to leave or you will get hurt emotionally, financially, or worse yet, physically. This is much more than a young girls struggle or simply coming to terms with being a lesbian. The emphasis is on freedom from unhappiness. It provides a three-year plan on how to come to terms with who you are and how to leave a long-term relationship with minimal hurt to all involved, including children, how to get less rejection prior to telling everyone the truth, and most importantly how to keep from being taken advantage of financially once you do decide to say I want a divorce or were done! Here is a summary of the authors words describing the book. I wrote this book to help others who are struggling in the same situation I was in. My three-year Free Baby plan helped me come to terms with who I am, and more importantly how I was able to break free from an 18-year marriage with 2 children. She continues to describe the book as follows. . . . Growing up in the 60s and 70s was a scary time because I was different than my friends and family. Exposure was my biggest fear. Determined to be like everyone else, I struggled to fight my internal calling. I was gay and no one knew it. As the months turned into years, I...
