Christ vs. Krishna: A Re-Reading of Sakes (Paperback)

By Prof M M Ninan, Dr L a Sakes

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . CHRIST VERSUS KRISHNA- A brief comparison between the Chief Events, Characteristics and Mission of the babe of Bethlehem Judea and the babe of Brindaban Madhurapuri with a concise review of Hinduism, proving its derivation from Christianity was originally written in 1883 by Dr. L.A. Sakes, a Physician who came to India in the newly formed Crown Colony of British Empire. The intense interest in the religions of India and the concerted all out attempt to study and present the vast documentations of Sanskrit literature resulted in the thesis. He was probably the first to see this comparison and to explain that the various sects of Indian religions as the corruption of Indigenous Christian Churches went wild under Brahminic fantasy. Prof. Ninan presents this book with lots of historic context and reference to modern scholarship.
