Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Brief Account of the Life was published in 1810 and focuses on White s struggle to win ordination as a Methodist preacher. Shortly after White s conversion in 1805, he dreams vividly of hell and the torments of the damned; out of whose mouths and nostrils issued flames of fire (pp. 9-10). In his dream, the guide who shows White the various features of hell tells him to Go, and declare what you have seen ; instructions that make him believe he should become a preacher (p. 10). White applies to become an exhorter but is initially rejected because of his inability and ignorance, lacking even the knowledge of the English alphabet, and because he speaks in a broken way . . . of Christ, and his love to sinners (p. 11). In July 1805, three months after his initial application, White is given a license to exhort and begins his work as an itinerant preacher on Long Island, in New York City and in upper New Jersey (p. 12). White converts many with his preaching, and he also believes that his preaching sanctifies him. During a meeting in his own house, White falls prostrate upon the floor, like one dead and obtains a spiritual view of the heavenly hosts surrounding the eternal throne, giving glory to God and the Lamb; with whom, all my ransomed powers seemed to unite, in symponious strains of divine adoration (p. 14). This powerful spiritual experience creates in White a desire to read the scriptures himself, and he employs his sixteen-year-old daughter as a teacher. White makes great progress but can only learn to read from the Bible. His daughter can...
