Be a rag doll and flop down low. Put on your boots and trudge through the snow, Be a scarecrow and flap in the breeze. Be an icicle and suddenly freeze! This book will have children moving and grooving! It's important to allow children to move before you ask them to sit and this book does exactly that. By the end of this series of movements, children are led to sit by a babbling brook and listen to a book--a GREAT transition while also integrating movement and creativity. Literacy Links and Learning Extensions support the teacher in helping children explore this topic and to engage them in critical thinking skills. Have some fun letting children explore fun, imaginative movements while getting them ready to listen! C mon, let's move! Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. It's been written in a remarkably easy way in fact it is only after I finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way I think.

A really great publication with lucid and perfect reasons. I have read through and I am confident that I am going to gonna read yet again yet again down the road. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
