For the speakers who have signified their willingness to do yeoman service in the cause have been insufficient in numbers to go around. The need of additional volunteers is urgent. To acquaint the Pilgrims more fully with this situation, a special notice is being sent out. It is earnestly hoped that with an appreciation of this condition, and a recognition of the support to the inexperienced speaker provided by the proposed class in public speaking, that the response will be noteworthy. We certainly don t want to see such opportunities go by ungrasped for want of speakers, do we? Headquarters Furnishing Committee To this committee has been given the job of furnishing the new headquarters in the Publicity Building. The first work of the committee is to raise funds as there is no money available in the P. P. A. treasury. A letter has been sent out soliciting a minimum contribution from each member of $2. If every member responded, this would be sufficient, but experience proves that this does not happen. The committee is therefore very anxious to get as many members as possible to contribute more than $2 each, making it possible to furnish the new rooms in a manner that will be a credit to the P. P. A. In addition to receiving a letter, each member of the P. P. A. will be approached personally by some member of the committee. It is desired to raise...
