C., small table with pen, ink and paper, under mirror. Soldiers in full dress uniform, wiping off guns and belts. Serg t. Warner and Billy Blake standing L. C., near 2d E.; all singing appropriate chorus at rise of curtain. Serg t Warner (looking around) Say Billy, did anyone tell Grant that he must be here at 5 o clock this morning? He has been late at every drill since he joined the company. If he is late this morning, it will cost him just five dollars. Billy He was around here last night, Serg t., and besides he has been properly notified and knows the rule. But it is my private opinion that he would much prefer to pay his little five than take in his first camp anyway. I understand he has not been particularly anxious to go, as...
