Excerpt from American Institute of Consulting Engineers: Proceedings of the Annual Meeting Held at the University Club, New York, January 17, 1944, and Address of Guest Speaker Dr. Harley L. Lutz, on Something New in Engineering, or Perpetual Motion in Public Debt; With Discussions Then there is a very large group of our members who. Have been either directly employed in civilian capacities by the War and Navy Departments or have served those or other departments directly in the war effort in a professional capacity. This list would be so long that it would take a large proportion of our total membership. There may be some who are commissioned or are in the service in a civilian capacity of whom we have no present knowledge, and it is only after termination of the war that these lists may be brought to completion, when they should be made an important part of the records of the Institute.
