Dun s Mercantile Agency informs us that the general cost of living has increased 131 per cent. We know of no more reliable source of information. Mr. Moffatt, manager of the Standard Oil Co. s Sugar Creek refinery, informs me that in the period since 1914 their common labor has been increased 138 per cent. This statement was given to me about September, however, and I understand that they have since had a further increase. We think that an entrance salary of $1,800 with an annual promotion of $300 until $2,400 maximum is reached, with the special clerks grade at $2,600 as a mandatory reward for two or three years of satisfactory service in the maximum grade would be about right, provided there is no further increase in the cost of necessities. To grant to the 44,681 clerks and 35,024 carriers in...
