Barnes Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 68 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Tales and Truths is a deeply personal collection that ends with the poem A Tribute, which Barnes describes as a Truth woven in the fabric of my being. I let you into secrets (in a subtle way I hope) and make sort of confession of my inner thoughts. So though I leave out drama, mystery and noble themes, I hope that in their telling they find in you too, a home. (from A Tribute, Tales and Truths) Tales and Truths is the last book in a series of four that also includes: Fragments, The Dreamers and Lost Voices, and Letters and Conjectures and Museum Musings. These collections of poetry came about almost spontaneously and kept me engaged and happy at a time when many options were closing on me due to illness. Many are the uses of adversity. (Elizabeth Barnes) This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
