Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Outlines of Instruction in the Needleworking Trade: For Use in Public Part-Time and Factory Vestibule Schools Education is a four-fold process in preparation for full or complete living. To be adequately prepared requires that the individual shall not be lacking in any one of the four elements necessary. First of all there must be health. Such instruction as will promote physical wellbeing is the foundation. Upon this foundation is laid the ability to earn a livelihood, so the second instructional process is preparation to do one's share of the productive work of the world. Third, and perhaps the largest in point of volume, are the social and civic relationships, the ability to live among one's fellows. Fourth and last is the profitable employment of leisure time. A well rounded education therefore includes the physical, vocational, social-civic, and avocational elements. Each is required, and each should have a controlling purpose within its own field. Physical education is concerned with physique and nothing else. Vocational education is concerned with intelligent skilled production, and that alone...
