CHEMICAL PRINCIPLES

Houghton Mifflin (Academic), 2001. Book Condition: new. Hardcover. 4th Revised Edition. Book-MINT, unread, still in shrink wrap. 10.5x8. 1047pp. CD/Rom included. The 4th of Steven Zumdahl's Principles text continues his unique approach to the teaching of a more challenging general chemistry course. By teaching students to look at observations first, then discuss the models that have been constructed to explain the observation, his approach has been highly acclaimed by tutors throughout the world. This new edition sees the combination of the...
