Trusted Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. For thousands of years, remarkable truths about God have been locked away . . . hidden in plain view. These previously invisible messages in the Bible had only been glimpsed by early translators of sacred texts while reading some passages in reverse order. But with the advent of todays computer technology, are some of the deepest mysteries of God knowable at last In a local pub, businessman Paul Newton is drawn into a series of conversations with a mysterious, former priest. Together they uncover the Exegesis Gap and explore the ramifications of this newfound knowledgeand its potential to change the life trajectories of both men. Accurate analysis of the Shroud of Turin had to wait for the invention of negative photographic imagery. Discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and Nag Hammadi texts didnt happen until after two world wars. Throughout the course of histor, has there been divine purpose in the timing of such faith-affirming information If so, Paul and Michael must consider the ramifications of the newest, most compelling evidence for the existence of God. Could it help to renew the faith of the faithless today This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
