Youll be asked it at family gatherings, weddings, and on first dates. And youll ask yourself far too often. Its the question that has no good answer. Its the question that when people stop asking it, makes you feel even worse: Why are you single On a brisk October morning in New York, Julie Jenson, a single thirty-eight-yearold book publicist, is on her way to work when she gets a hysterical phone call from her friend Georgia. Reeling from her husbands announcement that he is leaving her for a samba teacher, Georgia convinces a reluctant Julie to organize a fun girls night out with all their single friends to remind her why it is so much fun not to be tied down.
